

FREE EVENT

Senior Health & Information Fair

Saturday, Nov. 12

9 a.m. to noon

Recreation Center at Eastridge
9568 S. University Blvd.
Highlands Ranch

Event entrance at rear of building.

Service professionals will be on hand to answer your questions.

A variety of free, simple health screenings will be offered.

New this year - educational talks after the vendor fair.

- In-Home Care Services
- Veterans Services
- Pet Care
- Handyman Services
- Housing Modifications
- Volunter Opportunities
- Real Estate & Moving Services
- Nutrition & Fitness Information
- Fall Prevention Education
- Fraud Prevention/Safety Education
- Legal & Financial Managment Services
- Medicare Information
- And much more!

Flu shots available

For more information, contact Jodie McCann at 720-240-4922 or jmccann@highlandsranch.org

Educational Breakout Sessions

Senior Health & Information Fair

Aspen/Vail Room

Identity Theft & Fraud Prevention

Douglas County Sheriff's Office personnel talk about how to prevent being a victim of Identity theft, financial exploitation and scams.

Times: 12:15 - 1 p.m., 1:15 - 2 p.m. and 2:15 - 3 p.m.

Monarch Room

Getting Your Ducks In a Row - Your Legal Paperwork Questions Answered

Certified elder law and estate planning attorneys, Ambler & Keenan, discuss the importance of legal paperwork, assuring your wishes are honored and your estate distributed as you intended.

Times: 12:15 - 1 p.m., 1:15 - 2 p.m. and 2:15 - 3 p.m.

Telluride Room

Medicare Choices & You

Medicare professionals with Kaiser Permanente provide a general overview of Medicare and Medicare supplements, as well as what you can expect with Medicare in 2017.

Times: 12:15 - 1 p.m., 1:15 - 2 p.m. and 2:15 - 3 p.m.